

Story told to me 10/3/01 by Don and Teddy Rector

Grandmother Charlotte Senate Rector was not outwardly a warm person and Don seemed to be a bit scared of her. Maybe, because he wasn't around her much as a younger child.

After Don and Teddy were married, and over visiting, or for some type of family gathering. Teddy had mentioned how she liked old antiques and nikkaks. After the visit and they were ready to head home, Grandmother Charlotte gave her a vase. This was a total shock to everyone. Don's mother, Laura Pound Rector, told Teddy, she had been in this family for a very long time and never been given anything by Grandmother Charlotte.
